

Wheel Alignment Training

This course has been developed to equip industry professionals with the skills to carry out light vehicle wheel alignment operations including operating principles of steering geometry and wheel alignment, use of equipment and more.

Course Outline

All participants of this course need to demonstrate competency in:

- Operating principles of steering geometry and wheel alignment
- Relationships between fault symptoms and component defects
- Frame alignment checks
- Wheel alignment system types and their construction
- Use of measuring tools and testing equipment

Delivery Mode

This course consists of a mixture of practical and theoretical components.

Units Covered

Participants that successfully complete the course will be awarded the following units of competency:

AURLTD006

Carry out light vehicle wheel alignment operations

Wheel Alignment Training

Course Details

The course is delivered over one day or two nights.

Course times: 8:30 am to 4:30 pm (day course) | 5:00 pm – 9:00 pm (night course).

This course is held at: MTA's Royal Park Training Centre or we can accommodate on-site group bookings at your business.

Dates are scheduled throughout the year and are available on our website or when scanning the QR Code below.

Course Fees

MTA Members: $400 | Non-members: $555

Steer Your Team's Career

Secure Your Booking for the Automotive Air Conditioning Training Course Today

Scan the QR code or visit

qrco.de/be4fdZ

NATIONALLY RECOGNISED
TRAINING

For more information:

www.mtasant.com.au | mtatraining@mtasant.com.au | 8241 0522

Training delivered by the MTA Group Training Scheme Inc RTO Provider Number: 2293